

HPC 6366: Expressive Arts - Children and Adolescents College of Education Building at Appalachian State University

This institute is designed to present a comprehensive and developmentally oriented approach for the application of play theories and the creative/expressive arts to the process of counseling children and adolescents. The course will consist of class discussions, presentations, cooperative and group experiential learning activities, and “hands on” type of activities/projects which students will prepare and present. Students will learn techniques of play therapy, art, music, movement, creative dramatics, imagery, writing, and poetry for use in both the school and agency setting.

July 6th through July 10th, 2015
Monday 9am – 5pm, Tuesday and Wednesday 9am – 7pm,
Thursday 9am – 5pm, Friday 9am – noon

Institute Faculty:

Karen Caldwell, PhD and Melia Kizer, PhD

This intensive institute is offered both as a graduate course in the Department of Human Development & Psychological Counseling and as Continuing Education through the National Board of Certified Counselors (39 CEU's available). Students wishing to take the course for academic credit should register online. First-time graduate non-degree students must complete their applications on-line through the Graduate School web-site by June 18th. Professionals seeking continuing education credit should contact Melia Kizer at kizerma@appstate.edu or 828-262-6915 by June 20th. Space in the course is limited to 32 participants.

Status	Tuition + Fees:
Materials Fee for all participants	$100.00
Non-credit Participant	$400.00 (includes cost of CEU's)
In State Student for Academic Credit	$580.00*
Out of State Student for Academic Credit	$1,465.00*

*Subject to change. Please check student accounts.

